

Press Information 2010

The band WOODHOUSE was celebrating its 55th anniversary in the year 2008. Therefore WOODHOUSE is Germany's oldest Jazzband! Founded in 1953 as "WOODHOUSE-STOMPERS" in Muelheim-Ruhr, WOODHOUSE is still performing with different soloists. The success of WOODHOUSE can be seen in a couple of concerts abroad and numerous Radio & TV appearances in addition to LP/CD and DVD productions.

The band features contemporary Jazz with international artists. Musicians from Germany, Belgium, Poland and Bali/Indonesia influence the sound. WOODHOUSE presents a wide musical range of styles such as Dixieland, Swing, Blues, Ballade, Mainstream, Samba, Bossa and Rock/Pop.

WOODHOUSE features a new set of Jazz songs, predominantly composed and arranged by the drummer Rolf Drese. The band carries the spirit of Jazz with great joy and guarantees a diversified and fascinating concert for the audience.
